The Athenian Oath

We will never bring disgrace to this our city by any act of dishonesty or cowardice, nor ever desert our suffering comrades in the ranks; We will fight for the ideals and sacred things of the city, both alone and with many; We will revere and obey this city's laws and do our best to incite to a like respect and reverence those who are prone to annul or set them at naught; We will strive unceasingly to quicken the public sense of public duty; That this, in all these ways, we will transmit this city, not only, not less, but greater, better and more beautiful than it was transmitted to us.
