ITEMS FOR CONSIDERATION:

- Airport Manager, Carberry, did an overview of the economic activity for calendar year-end 2014.
- Airport Manager, Carberry, discussed that Dave Sommer would like to build a new hangar, he will be back later this month from a trip and would like to begin with a site plan.
- Airport Manager, Carberry, mentioned that one of the Air Traffic Controllers has proposed a visit for one of the KC-135 re-fuelers out of Hill AFB in Utah to stop over at our airport this spring in order to host an aircraft orientation day for controllers and firefighters. It is still in the planning stages.

STATUS REPORT:

Air Service Update: Airport Manager, Carberry, informed the Board that Alaska/Horizon decided not to utilize TWF airport for diversions this winter. With both Elko and Sun Valley doing some construction this spring and summer, it could potentially give us some extra flights during that time.

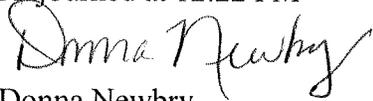

Open Discussion/Public Input

Former Board Member, Gene Turley wanted to express his gratitude for serving on the board and enjoyed his time spent with each of the members over the years.

Adjournment
